

Be sure every count is sharp.
Let leg gesture be the impetus for bending the supporting leg.

As though looking to see where D went Silence

m.m = 120

4
3
2
1

8
7
6
5

The main notation score consists of two staves. The upper staff contains rhythmic notation with various symbols: squares, diamonds, triangles, and circles, some with internal patterns. The lower staff contains a continuous line drawing of a leg's movement, showing its path and position over time. Vertical tick marks align the two staves. The score is divided into measures corresponding to the counts 1 through 8.

